

Serving the communities of Edson, Slave Lake and Whitecourt

Courtney Lawrance Joins Senior Executive Team as Associate Superintendent of Learning at Living Waters

The Superintendent and the Board of Trustees are pleased to announce that Courtney Lawrance has been appointed as the new Associate Superintendent of Learning for Living Waters Catholic Schools effective August 1, 2017.

“The priority for the Board has been in identifying an individual highly skilled in administration with a strong focus on student learning,” said Jo-Anne Lanctot, Superintendent of Living Waters Catholic Schools. The Board of Trustees were very pleased with the quality of candidates resulting from its Canada-wide search.

Courtney has spent the majority of her career as a teacher and administrator in Alberta’s North. Courtney was Vice-Principal at St. Andrew’s School in High Prairie and then Glenmary Secondary School in Peace River before moving to St. Joseph Catholic High School in Grande Prairie as Principal. She has been Principal of RF Staples Secondary in Westlock for the past two years. Courtney completed her graduate work around strategies to improve First Nations, Metis, and Inuit high school completion rates. Courtney is looking forward to being part of the collaborative culture of Living Waters Catholic Schools. The faith-filled student centered approach of the division with their focus on innovation sets the Living Waters school division apart. Ms. Lawrance is excited to work directly with the division’s schools to help with the implementation of Vision 2020.

Courtney has a strong faith and is eager to join the parish community in Whitecourt. Courtney’s other interests include travel, reading, and fashion.

Courtney comes with much experience in promoting continuous improvement and will be a positive addition to providing excellence in service and care to our community schools so that they will be able to achieve our Living Waters Divisional Goal that every child who enters our doors will graduate successfully from a faith-filled safe and caring environment prepared for future success.

Living Waters Catholic Schools serves a student population of approximately 2100 in its six schools located in Edson, Whitecourt and Slave Lake.
